GAYLE KIRKEBY JOINS PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL AS VICE PRESIDENT OF GLOBAL SALES

MINNEAPOLIS (Sept. 28, 2005) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI) today announced the hiring of Gayle Kirkeby as vice president of global sales. In this position, she will be responsible for leading the sales organization in conveying PDI's leadership advantage to current and potential clients.

“Gayle has proven experience with global clients and an extensive background in sales management, consulting, and training and development,” said Cindy Marsh, PDI president “We know her professional expertise along with her strong leadership skills, integrity and ability to build, coach and motivate teams will continue to position PDI as a leader in providing human resources consulting and talent management expertise on a global scale.”

Most recently, Kirkeby was vice president of sales and marketing for Thompson Prometric, a global leader in technology-enabled testing and assessment services, with responsibility for the global organization. Prior to that role, she held numerous senior sales and marketing executive positions with Wilson Learning Corporation. Earlier in her career Kirkeby established a successful training and consulting practice focused on sales, sales management and organizational effectiveness.
