PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL PROMOTES JENNIFER SCOTT TO GENERAL MANAGER FOR PDI MELBOURNE

MINNEAPOLIS (Feb. 5, 2008) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI), a global consulting firm specializing in talent management and leadership development, promoted Jennifer Scott to general manager for PDI Melbourne. In her new role, Jennifer will report to Cal Oltrogge, vice president and regional director, PDI APAC.

“Jennifer has made significant contributions to the success of PDI in both Australia and the Asia Pacific region and we are very pleased to welcome her into her new role,” Oltrogge said.

Jennifer comes into her new role from director of leadership development services for PDI in the Australia and New Zealand sub-region, where she was responsible for intellectual property translation, service design, delivery of senior level programs and interventions, strategic consulting, coaching services, local and global client management, internal team management and contribution to business planning. Jennifer has worked across the major practice areas of the PDI business model, including assessment center methodologies, psychometric assessment and profiling, and learning and development programs.

Prior to joining PDI, Jennifer has had a substantial career working within many areas of applied psychology and including law, marketing, generalist human resource management and private psychological practice. She honed her skills within the discipline of Psychology whilst working under the supervision of the chief of staff of the Cairnmillar Institute. Jennifer holds a BA in Psychology from Macquarie University and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Psychology from Swinburne University. She is a Registered Psychologist and Member of the Australian Psychological Society.
