PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL PROMOTES KATE BRAVERY TO GENERAL MANAGER FOR PDI SYDNEY

MINNEAPOLIS (Feb. 5, 2008) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI), a global consulting firm specializing in talent management and leadership development, announced the promotion of Kate Bravery to general manager for PDI Sydney. In her new role, Bravery will report to Cal Oltrogge, vice president and regional director, PDI APAC.

“Kate’s leadership skills and dedication to providing talent-related business solutions will contribute greatly to PDI’s continued success in helping our clients in Australia make better leadership talent decisions,” Oltrogge said.

Bravery joined PDI in 2006. A chartered organizational psychologist with a distinguished track record in creating effective and pragmatic business solutions for local and international clients, her core expertise lies in talent management, performance management, assessment and team/leadership development. Her board based consultancy experience is balanced by her knowledge of operational management gained as a company director of a mid-sized enterprise in the UK.

Bravery holds a B.Sc. in Psychology from the University of London, an M.Sc. in Organizational Psychology from City University (London) and she is currently finishing her M.B.A. at Macquarie Business School in Sydney. She is a founding member of the Association of Business Psychologists in the UK, a certified member of the Australian Human Resource Institute and a registration board member of the New South Wales Psychologists. She is affiliated with the Australian Psychological Association College of Organizational Psychology and the British Psychology Society and Division of Occupational Psychology.
