LEEN SEGERS JOINS PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL AS TALENT ACQUISITION MANAGER

BRUSSELS (Apr. 2, 2008) – Leen Segers joined the global human resources team of Personnel Decisions International (PDI), a global consulting firm specializing in talent management and leadership development, as the talent acquisition manager for PDI's European, Middle Eastern and African region (EMEA). In her new role, Leen will be responsible for professional staffing for PDI EMEA, including consultants, sales and leadership, as well as other global recruitment related initiatives.

“We are currently experiencing a great deal of growth in EMEA and will be continuing to seek out bright new additions to join the PDI team,” said Klaus Schuler, senior vice president and managing director of PDI EMEA. “Leen’s experience and excellent sourcing skills will be a great asset to PDI as PDI EMEA continues to grow.”

Leen has extensive experience in recruitment of professionals and leaders in a variety of business environments. Prior to PDI, she spent 15 years at Korn Ferry International, a provider of executive human capital solutions. As a senior research associate, Leen provided professional services in research, recruitment and interviewing for key positions in client organizations. Leen has also worked as a recruitment assistant at Computer Sciences Corporation, a leading global IT services company.

Leen’s education includes graduate study in political and public sciences at the State University of Ghent and post-graduate study in European policies at the College of Europe, Bruges. She is fluent in Dutch, French and English, and has an understanding knowledge of German.
