PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL HIRES MICHAEL LEHMAN AS EASTERN REGION DIRECTOR FOR ASSESSMENT SERVICES

MINNEAPOLIS (Oct. 11, 2007) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI) today announced the hiring of Michael Lehman, Ph.D., as Eastern Region Director for Assessment Services.

In today's business environment, assessment services are essential in driving human capital strategies and business goals. PDI's assessment services are a strong growth division for the company as it responds to market demand.

“Michael's expertise and experience with assessment services are invaluable at a time when the market for assessment products and services continues to grow rapidly,” said Dave Heine, Ph.D., executive vice president of PDI. “Michael is a proven leader with a solid background in assessment and talent solutions. His impressive regional and global connections will help further the Eastern region's overall capabilities. We are excited to welcome Michael to PDI and look forward to his contributions in PDI's Eastern region.”

Michael comes to PDI's Atlanta office with a background in assessment and talent solutions, as well as an extensive background in global development projects and large scale selection. Most recently, Michael was vice president of consulting and practice leader for Right Management's assessment practice in the Southern region.

He also worked at Development Dimensions International (DDI) in a variety of roles, including leading DDI's consulting team in the UK. Lehman holds a Ph.D. in industrial psychology from the University of Akron.
