Personnel Decisions International (PDI) to Present on Managing Talent in Uncertain Economic Times at SuccessFactors 2008 SuccessConnect User Conference

PDI General Manager, Mitchell Nash, will share talent management strategies for capitalizing on, rather than bracing for, economic uncertainty.

MINNEAPOLIS (May 6, 2008) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI), the global consulting authority on strategic talent decisions, today announced it will be presenting at the upcoming SuccessConnect Global User Conference, taking place June 2-5, 2008, in San Francisco, CA. The session, titled "Leveraging Human Capital in Tough and Uncertain Economic Times," will help attendees understand how to be proactive and use economic uncertainty to gain a competitive edge.

The SuccessFactors 2008 SuccessConnect Global User Conference promises to be the largest, smartest, and most comprehensive Global User Conference in the company's history. Live keynotes with SuccessFactors CEO Lars Dalggaard and industry thought leaders like Robert Sutton and Mitchell Nash of PDI will be combined with over 40 customer-led case study sessions and other activities designed to help customers advance in their use of technology for talent management. PDI, a SuccessFactors partner, will be actively present to guide attendees in their efforts to leverage SuccessFactors to navigate the business challenges of tomorrow.

According to R.J. Heckman, Ph.D., general manager and vice president of PDI, "Over the past few years we have seen significant adoption of talent management technologies like SuccessFactors among PDI clients. So we are thrilled to be teaming up at the SuccessConnect event to help our mutual customers best leverage their investment in technology and PDI to make better decisions about talent, in today's tough economic times and well into the future."
