PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL ANNOUNCES SUSAN BROCK AS GENERAL MANAGER OF THE TWIN CITIES OFFICE

MINNEAPOLIS (Nov. 25, 2008) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI), a global leadership consulting firm specializing in talent management and leadership development, today announced M. Susan Brock, Psy.D., as the new general manager of PDI's Twin Cities office.

Brock has been with PDI for nearly 15 years, working in the Twin Cities office and in an expat position for almost five years in the Geneva office, serving clients across Europe, Cape Town, Buenos Aires, Singapore, Moscow, and the Middle East. After her international assignment, she returned to the Twin Cities office and received a chairman's award for her contribution in the creation of PDI's coaching curriculum. She has been a lead consultant on several large clients and has successfully helped her clients with the tools and practices they need to enhance their effectiveness and handle organizational change.

Brock has been acting general manager for the Twin Cities office since August 1, 2008. In this new role, Brock oversees all client work for the operating office.

"Susie has exceptional leadership skills and breadth of experience," said Tom Daniel, Ph.D., senior vice president and west region director for PDI. "In her time with PDI, she has built a stellar reputation for her executive coaching skills and her commitment to serving clients. She will be an effective and dynamic leader of the Twin Cities office."

Prior to her work with PDI, Brock was an internal consultant with Unisys Corporation where she delivered training and coaching services for 12 years.

She holds a Doctorate in Psychology and Master of Arts degree in counseling psychology from the University of St. Thomas and a Bachelor's degree from Ohio University.
