PERSONNEL DECISIONS INTERNATIONAL ANNOUNCES THE PROMOTIONS OF PETER TOMICH AND XAVIER WEEGER

MINNEAPOLIS (Feb. 10, 2006) – Personnel Decisions International (PDI) today announced the promotions of Peter Tomich to managing director of its Middle East Virtual team and Xavier Weeger to interim managing director of the Geneva office.

In his new role, Tomich will oversee business in the Middle East and be responsible for developing a distinctive strategic approach to marketing and leveraging PDI for further success, maintaining organizational effectiveness and building relationships with current and potential clients. Before taking on his new role, Tomich served as the managing director of PDI's Geneva office, a position he held since January 2004. He focused primarily on assessment, organizational effectiveness, executive coaching, and career exploration and development. Before joining PDI, Tomich held strategic human resources positions with Motorola and ON Semiconductor.

As the interim managing director of PDI's Geneva office, Weeger will lead the office in its efforts to build success within the Swiss business market. He will join the Europe, Middle East, and Africa (EMEA) leadership team, bringing with him expertise in the areas of assessment, business, science, and technology. Weeger joined PDI's Paris office in 2000 and transferred to the Geneva office in 2005, where he served as an assessment leader. Prior to his work with PDI, Weeger spent 15 years in the consumer electronics and IT fields specializing in product marketing and development.

“As PDI continues its significant growth globally, these personnel appointments will serve to strengthen our operations in Switzerland and the Middle East and will be of great benefit to clients in these regions,” said Klaus Schuler, PDI vice president and managing director, Europe, Middle East, and Africa.

“Xavier and Peter both bring a wealth of knowledge and talent to PDI,” said Cynthia Marsh, president and chief operating officer of PDI. “We’re confident that through their strong leadership and coaching, deep understanding of the business, and cultural awareness and sensitivity, they will continue to position PDI as a leader in providing human resources consulting and talent management expertise on a global scale.”
